

THE 5TH AUSTRALIAN MARS EXPLORATION CONFERENCE

MARS

'ROVING THE RED PLANET'

The Mars Society Australia & the ANU School of Psychology invite you to a weekend conference on Mars exploration, featuring presentations by various leading experts on the Red Planet including...

Professor Steve Squyres

Cornell University and Principal Investigator, Mars Exploration Project:
Discoveries of Twin Rover Missions to Mars
(Conference Keynote Lecture)

Marion Anderson

Monash University: Past, Present and Future Mars Exploration
(Free Public Lecture)

Neal Newman

NASA Representative - Australia: Future Mars Missions

Dr. Christine Charles

Australian National University: Plasma Thrusters to Mars

Dr. Charles Lineweaver

Australian National University: Martian Life

Professor Ross Taylor

Australian National University: Mars in the Context of the Solar System

Dr. Duncan Steel

Ball Aerospace/Australian Centre for Astrobiology: Future Rover Designs

Dr. Rachel Eggins

ANU School of Psychology: Expedition Social Dynamics

DATE: August 19-21, 2005

VENUE: Manning Clark Theatre 3, Australian National University, Canberra

REGISTRATION: $120 full registration, $80 concession, (Additional discount for MSA members).

Full registration includes welcome drinks, lunches & refreshments, conference banquet & an exclusive 'behind the scenes' tour of the Canberra Deep Space Communication Complex

REGISTER ONLINE & find out more at www.marssociety.org.au