

A Weekend on Mars!

The 9th Australian Mars Exploration Conference (AMEC2009) will be held in Adelaide over the weekend of 17th-19th July. Presentations over this exciting three-day event will cover a range of issues concerned with exploring and pioneering Mars. The conference will open with a free public lecture by one of the world's leading planetary scientists ...

7.30pm
Friday 17th July

Free Public Lecture

Dr Chris McKay, Space Science Division NASA AMES

'Results of the Phoenix Mission to Mars and Analog Sites on Earth'

Lecture and Conference Venue:-

Level 3 - Room 16 (C3-16),
University of South Australia,
City East Campus,
Corner of North Terrace & Frome Road, ADELAIDE.

9am
Sat/Sun 18th-19th July

Conference

Speakers will include

Rosalba Bonaccorsi, from NASA Ames

Dr Jonathan Clarke, on Australian Mars Analogues

Reut Sorek-Abramovich, Aust Centre Astrobiology

Eriita Jones, on Life and Water

Dr. John Malos & Dr. Jonathon Ralston on Advanced Mining Automation

and more ...

Find out more and register now at www.marssociety.org.au